

TODAY

Outfit the classroom with furnishings for independent studies

INDEPENDENT STUDIES

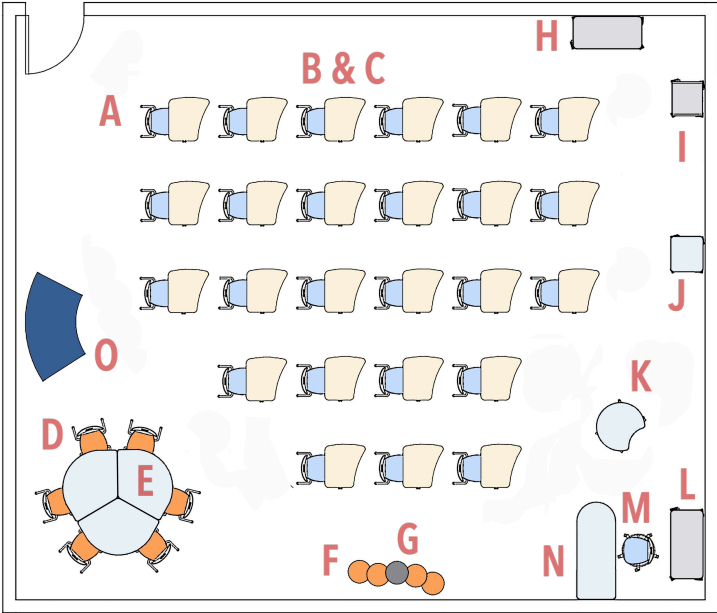

Today you may have specific health requirements when outfitting a classroom.

Designated space between students.

Rows of desks facing the same direction.

Perhaps that's the best format for staying in compliance, as students & teachers go back to class, full-time.

TOMORROW

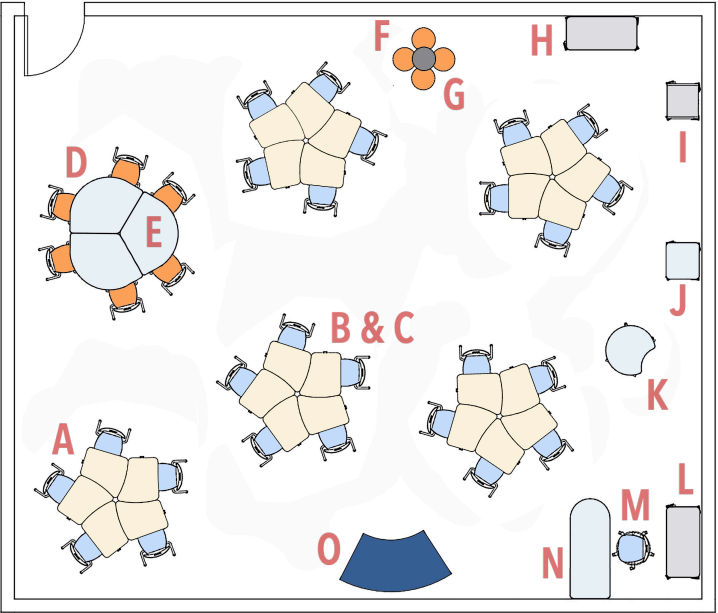

Reconfigure those components for collaborative learning!

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING

This time next year, perhaps the health protocols will allow for small groups to work together, solving problems and learning from each other.

By thinking ahead, the furnishings you purchase now can easily be rearranged from rows to clusters.

Use what you must buy today for tomorrow's best learning practices!

Alumni's y5 concept for dynamic learning

- Why 5? Why is "5" the perfect size group for learning?
- Alumni gathered research that concludes a thoughtfully assigned group of 5 students ...
 - ... gathered around a pentagon-shaped desk pod ...
 - can support each other and help each other learn ...
 - ... collaborative learning defined.
