Dear Equalis Members,

For over 70 years, we have been committed to a single, powerful mission - "We Furnish Education."

As a trusted partner for schools and institutions, we take great pride in providing high-quality educational furniture and equipment that foster engaging, inspiring, and functional learning environments.

From classrooms and libraries to science labs, media centers, cafeterias, and athletic facilities, we offer top-tier furniture and equipment designed to enhance learning and collaboration.

Whether it's desks, chairs, lockers, telescopic bleachers, grandstands, casework, esports setups, or maker spaces, we are here to help schools create the best possible environments for students to thrive.

Thank you for choosing Nickerson. We look forward to working with you and helping shape the future of education—one space at a time.

Sincerely yours,

Stephanie Keller
